RACING GUN SOUNDED FOR OPENING AT OLD MARLBORO

Large Crowd Attends Opening Day of Meet of Little Maryland Track-Great Dolly: Takes Mile Race in Feature of Card.

Upper Marlboro, Aug. 22.—The first gun in the Maryland racing was fired here yesterday afternoon when the Southern Maryland Agricultural Fair Association opened its three-day meet. Some figure near 8,000 journeyed to the little Maryland town to witness this sport on the "merry-go-round.

This gathering was made up of the regular followers of the game in this vicinity, while the khaki of the army and Marine Corps along with the white and blue of the navy was in the prominent assembly. The fair sex turned out almost as strongly as the sportsmen. The grandstand an hour before the first race was filled with belles of Maryland, Virginia and the District. It was a typical racing crowd for an opening in any section. The horses that ran in the eight attractions were not ideal campaigners and every one of the old-timers were seeking information on the ability and nature of their chances in this "hobby-horse league.

There were no features or handicapes on the card, but in each event the nields were closely matched. In seeking a feature of the afternoon the

THE BEST OF THEM

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 22.-That the the great Roamer, while being considered particularly meritorious by his connections, is not going to have the son of Knight Errant dedge his engagements is conclusively shown by the answer given by Jack Golds-borough to R. G. Bedwell, trainer for the Commander Ross string, who intends to start Cudgel in the Mer-chants' and Citizens' test at one and three-sixteenth miles on Saturday.
"Of course Roamer will start," said Goldsborough. "What did you sup-pose I gave him that work-out for!" Further than this, it is the inten-tion of Mr. Miller to start his horse against the best that may be ar-rayed against him in any special test that may be arranged, as he announced his willingness to run Roamer against Sun Briar at a mile if the latter would carry 108 pounds amingt Roamer's 118. against Roamer's 118.

Chance for Big Series.

"Whether or not the World Series will be played on account of the work or fight order, depends, of course, upon the number of men affected. The number would, I think, be very small—two teams," said Secretary Baker in an interview with newspaper men yesterday. "The army abroad is interested in the result of the World Series, and I understand arrangements are made for transmitting the result of these games abroad for information of our American boys who have not for-American boys who have not for-gotten the great American sport."

DEMPSEY-WILLARD BATTLE BOOKED FOR PHILADELPHIA

Dayton. O. Aug. 22.—Jack Dempsey, the leading heavyweight contender who stopped Fred Fulton a few weeks ago, stated here today that he is matched to fight Jess Willard. The bout will be staged in Philadelphia and will take place on September 23. It was not stated whether the match is for the world's championship. As it is to be held in Philadelphia it will undoubtedly be only a six round affair but the Fulton Dempsey match was only scheduled to go eight rounds. There is reason to believe that Williard in San Francisco on Labor Day.
